Next, on your own paper, use the information above to write a paragraph that includes the following:

- the title, author, and theme topic need to be included at the beginning
- a developed explanation of how each detail relates to the theme topic
- a statement that reflects the author’s message about this theme